A Prognostication

for euer, made by Erra Pater, a Iew, borne in Iury, Doctor in Astronomie & Physicke; very profitable to keepe the body in health: and also Ptolomeus 1037 saith the same.

ERRA PATER.

A Prognostication for euer made by Erra Pater.

AND I finde in the Science of Astronomy there bee foure maner of Cholers in mans body, of the foure complexions. The first is bloud, the second black Choler, the third Flumes, & the fourt yealow Choller: and if one of the foure lack, all the body will be forthwith dead, for as much sustaineth one of them the body as the other.

And each of them ought to [illegible]ertaine, for if one of them surmount another, all the body that haue damage thereby, and all foure be perilleous: for if the bloud surmount the other, it will soone destroy and ouercome the body, & make him dye: for it gathereth and likewise congealeth euen right on the heart, and the breath, & in that manner (lessening) by little and little, is ouercome and dead, but all that time when the great course taketh him, it may some be assuaged by taking away a little blood from him, for then all that perill will assuage.

Also the blacke cholers be right perillous, & if they surmount the other, they doe great damage to the body by many and diuers meanes: for they cause the body to fall, by the euill sickneſſe and to lose his wit and knowledge, and become a fole, & they cause all the body to be full of euell scabs, and oft times to be meſell, and they make a man to be fearfull and a coward, and of many euill maners.

And by hearbs flowers, fasting, abstinence, drinkes and medicines, they may be assuaged.

[illegible]lume that be white, be right perillous also, when they surmount the other cholers of the body, and doe great damage and hurt: for they engender gouts and many other euill sickneſſes that be cold: and they also hurt the feet, the legs, the knees, the handes, the reines and the teeth, and make the mouth and the breath stincking, and the nose and the eares, and causeth many other diseases and sicknesses. And they may be aswaged by hearbs, flowers, rootes, medicines, drinkes, and also by vomiting.

Also the yealow cholers, be perilous, for when they surmount the other cholers in a mans body, they ouerbent the heart, and trouble the braine, and maketh all the members feeble and soft, and taketh away the will and appetite from the body, that it may neither eate nor drinke, and also they change a mans colour, and maketh him to lose his sight and become blinde. And they may be aswaged by hearbs, flowers, rootes, and by vomiting.

The foure humours be of foure complexions, and they haue the domination of the body foure times in the yéere: and each of them a quarter of a yéere.

It is to be vnderstood that in the yéere is twelue Moneths, and in the twelue moneths are two and fiftie weekes, & in the two and fiftie weekes are three hundred threescore and fiue dayes, and in the three hundred threescore & fiue dayes are contained eight thousand seuen hundred and threescore houres.

The disposition of the first part of the yeere, Capricornus, Aquarius and Pisces.

THe first part of the yeare that hath domination in the body of man, is three moneths, and these be their signes, Capricornus, Aquarius and Pisces. And these three signes haue power ouer the flumes in the body of man and woman, and they be cold and moist, and they begin to raigne the xxiii. day of March.

The disposition of the second part of the yeere, Aries, Taurus, and Gemini.

The second part of the yeere is other three thꝛée moneths, and these be their signes Aries, Taurus, and Gemini. And these haue power in the body of man, of the brest: and they be hot and moist. And they begin to raigne the xxiiij. of June.

The disposition of the third part of the yeere, Cancer, Leo, and Virgo.

The third part of the yeare is other thꝛée moneths, and these be their signes. Cancer, Leo, and Virgo. And they haue power in the body of man of the yealow cholers, and they be hot and dꝛy. And they begin to raign the xxiiij of June, and dureth vnto the xxiiij. of September.

The disposition of the fourth part of the yeere, Libra, Scorpio, and Sagittarius.

The fourth part of the yéere be other thꝛée moneths, and these be their signes, Libra, Scorpio, and Sagittarius. And they be cold and dꝛy, and they begin to raigne

the xxiiii. of September, and dureth vnto the xxiiii. of December.

And by the manner of these foure seasons euery man may kéepe him from all the contraries of meate, drinkes, and clothing, and from all other contraries. And if a man will kéepe himselfe after the manner which is rehearsed in this Booke, he shall neuer haue infirmities of body, by the grace of God.

Take Pellitor of Spiane, and chew it in the mouth, for it is good to purge the head and the body. And eat Fenell séed and Comin séede, for each of those séedes destroy the fumes, whereof all the euils in many mans body come.

Here he sheweth of all the dismall or perillous dayes that come in the yeare.

Maisters of Astronomy and Physicke that this craft first found, tell the most perillous and dangerous daies in the yeere. In which if any man or woman be let blood of wound or veine, they shall dye within xxj. dayes following. Or who so falleth into sickneſſe on any of these dayes, they shall neuer escape it till they be dead. And who so taketh any great iourney in any of these dayes to goe from home, he shall be in danger to dye ere he come home againe. And who so weddeth a wife in any of these dayes, they shall soon be parted, or else they shall liue together with much sorrow. And who so beginneth in any of these dayes any

any great worke, it shall neuer come to good end: and these are the dayes following.

That is to say.

In Ianuary are eight dayes, that is to say the first, the second, the fourth, the fifth, the tenth, the fiftéenth, the seauentéenth and the nineteenth. i

In February are thrée dayes, the viii. the x. and the xvii. ii

In March are thrée dayes, the xv. the xvj. and the xix. iii

In Aprill are two dayes, the xv. and the xxj. iiii

In May are thrée dayes, the vii. the xv. and the xx. v

In Iune are two dayes. the iiii. and the vij. vj

In Iuly are two dayes, the xv. and the xx. vij

In August are two dayes, the xix. and the xx. viij

In September are two dayes, the vj. and the vij. ix

In October is one, the vj. x

In Nouember are two dayes, the v. and the xix. xj

In

In December are three dayes, the v. the vii. and the xj. Et alij dicunt, the xv. and the xvj.

And who so will learne the Canicular dayes, which are dayes of great danger and perill, as Clarkes say, may know they begin the iv. Kalend of August, and continue to the fourth Nonas of September, which season is very perillous to take sickneſſe, and it is also perillous to take drinkes & medicines, or to let bloud, but if it be great nede, and then it must be after the midst of the day.

Here beginneth the distance betweene the Signes.

IT is to be vnderstood that there is a circle in the Firmament, that is called Zodiack, & it is diuided into twelue euen parts, and those parts be called the twelue Signes, and in Latine these bee their names: Aries, Taurus Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricornus, Aquarius, and Pisces.

These twelue Signes are in complexion like vnto the foure Elements, that is,

is to say, the Fire, the Ayre, the Water, and the Earth: the fire is hot and dry, his Element is likened vnto the Ram, the Lyon, and the Shooter, for these be hot and drie: also the Ayre is hot and moist, his Element is likened to the Children, the Ballance, and the Waterbearer, for they be hot and moyst. The Water is cold and moyst, and to the water is likened the Crab, the Scorpion, & the Fish. The earth is dry and cold, to the earth is likened the Bull, the Maid and the Goat, for they be dry and cold.

And euery one of the signes is diuided into thirtie euen parts, these parts are called degrees, & euery degree is diuided into threescore euen parts, & these parts are called minutes, and euery minute is diuided into threescore euen parts, and these parts be called seconds, and so forth to the thirds and fourths.

It is also to be vnderstood that there are seuen Planets, as Saturnus, Iupiter, Mars, Sol, Venus, Mercury, and Luna. These be the seauen moueable Starres. The aforesaid twelue signes take great power and might of the seaven Planets, and the seaven Planets take great power of the twelue signes: for the Planets be to the signes as the soule to the body, and the signes to the Planets as the body to the soule. For like as the body can doe nothing without the soule, nor the soule doe any thing without the body, no more may a signe without one of the seauen Planets.

power

Saturnus is the highest, and next beneath Saturnus is Iupiter, beneath Iupiter Mars, beneath Mars Sol, beneath Sol Venus, beneath Venus Mercurius, beneath Mercurius Luna.

The wise Philosophers say it is from the earth to Luna, v. M. viij. C. miles.

From Luna to Mercurius, is xii M. viij. C. xij. miles and a halfe.

From Mercurius to Venus, as many.

From Venus to Sol is xiij M. iiij C. and xxxviij. miles.

From Sol to Mars is xv. M. viij. C. and fiue and twenty miles.

From Mars to Iupiter is threescore and eight thousand seauen hundred, and one and twenty miles.

From

From Iupiter to Saturnus as many.

From Saturnus to the firmament, is fixe score M. iiij. C. lxxxv. miles.

The summe of all the miles is seauenscore and eightéene thousand, fours hundred threéscore and three miles.

Hereafter followeth a coniunction of the change of the Moone.

When the Prime is on the letter A the iij. day before the Prime the xix. houre, shal be the change of the Moon. And you shall begin to tell your houres at midnight, for a day naturall is from midnight to midnight. When the Prime is on the Letter B. then the third day and fourth houre after midnight it shall change. When it chanceth on the Letter C. then the fourth day and eight houre. When it is on the Letter D. then the fourth day and twentieth houre, When it is on the Letter E. the fourth day, and eightéenth houre. When it is on the Letter F. then the third day and sixtéenth houre. When it is on the Letter G. then the third day and fourtéenth houre.

The disposition of the xij. Moneths for bloud-letting.

Ianuary.

IN the moneth of Ianuary, let thée not bleed in the first day, for it is perilous, nor the second day, nor the. fift day, nor the x. day, nor the xv. day, nor the xix. day nor the xx. day, nor the xxv. day. but as often as thou wilt drinke good white wine fasting, and also take good heed of the dayes that be aboue written, for they bee perilous to bleede on, except the signe be right good for bloud-letting.

February.

In the moneth of Februarie, eat no pottage made of Hockes or Mallowes, for they are venome. And if thou hast néede to bleede on thy wrist, or on thy arme, bleede not the iiij. day, nor the vj. day, nor on the viij. day, nor on the xvj. day nor on the xviij. day, but that the signe be very good, and thou haue great néede.

March.

In the moneth of March, eate Figges Raizins,

Raysins, and swéet meates and drinkes, and eate hot meates, and let thée blood on the right arme, on the first day, or on the xv. day or on the xvij day, for that is good against all manner of Feuers, but beware thou bléede not the first day. nor the xv. day, nor the xvj. day, nor the xix. day, nor the xviij. day, if thou maist chose: and if thou doo, loke the signe bee very good.

Aprill.

In the moneth of Aprill, bléede on the left arme on the third day, or on the xj. day, or on the xv. day, & thou shalt haue no great head ach, nor léese thy sight of all that yéere, & vse fresh and hot meates: but bléed not the vij. day, nor the viij. day, nor the x. day, nor the xx. day, for these daies be not good for bléeding.

May.

In the moneth of May rise early, and eate and drinke betime, and vse good meates and drinkes, but eate neither of head nor fot whyle that last, and let thée blood on the first day, or on the eighteenth day, on which arme thou wilt, or on the xxbiij. day, or on the xxbij. day, and it shall much helpe thée against all manner of euill, but beware that thou bléede not the third day, nor the sixt day, nor the xxb. day.

Iune.

In the moneth of Iune some Phisitions say, that it is good euery day to drink a quantity of cold water fasting, and rule thée of thy meate and drinke, and if thou haue néed, bléed on the xxbiij. day, for that is good, but beware that thou bléede not on the bij. day, nor on the x. day, nor the xb. day, nor xbj. nor the xx. day.

Iuly.

In the moneth of Iuly, kéepe thée from Lechery, for then the braine and the humours are alwayes open: and bléede not in this moneth, but if thou haue great néede, and then beware alway that thou bléed not on the xiij. day, nor on the xb. day, for it is dangerous.

August.

Auguſt.

In the moneth of Auguſt, eate no manner of Wortis, nor any manner of hot meates and drinkes of ſpicerie, nor bléde on the firſt day, nor the xx. day, nor the xxix. day, nor the xxx. day: the other dayes thou maiſt bléd for great néed, if the ſigne be good for blood-letting, but not elſe: if thou loue to kéepe thy body in good health.

September.

In the moneth of September, all manner of fruits that is ripe & not infected, is good for to eat: and bléd not the iij. day, nor the iiij. day, nor the xvi. day, nor the xxi. day, nor the xxij. day: But bléde on the xvij. day, or the xviii. day, for the dropſie, phrenſie, paliſe, or the falling euill. and dread thée not all that péere after any of them.

October.

In the moneth of October, drink good and wholſome wine, & bléd not except great néede make thée, and loke that the signe bee very good, but yet beware that thou bleede not on the third day, nor the first day, nor the xxiii. day, and then wilt doe well.

Nouember.

In the moneth of Nouember, bleede not but for neede, for all the blod is gathered that time vpon the head veine: bath not, but bent thée a little of grasing, for then all the humours bée ouer-quicke to bléede, and if case bée that thou haue great néede for to bléede, beware of the first day the vi. day, the xb. and the xix. day, the xxbiij. day, and the xxix.

December.

In the moneth of December, bleede not. but if thou haue great néede for thy health. And in case thou haue much néed to bléede, beware of the bii. day, the xv. day, the xvi. day, the xvii. day, and the xxii. day, but bléede on the xxvi. day, for that is not hurtfull: and in this monethe come not nie the fire with thy shanks.

A rule to know and vnderstand the yeere that shall be plenteous, and in great abundance of goods.

In die Dominica. That is Sunday.

IN the yéere that Ianuary shall enter on the Sunday, the Winter shall bee cold and moyst, the Summer shall be hot, and rainy, with great abundance of Corne, of Wines, and other graines, and of all garden Fruits, and herbes: there shall bee little Oyle; abundance shall bee of all manner of flesh: some great newes shall men heare spoken of Kinges and Prelates of the Church, and also of great Princes: great warres and robberies shall bee made, and many young people shall die.

In die Lunæ. That is Munday.

IN the yéere that Ianuary shall enter on the Munday, the Winter shall bee peaceable enough: the Summer shall bee very temperate. There shall bee great floudes of waters that shall breake out of their limits and bounds, and many shipps vpon the Sea shall perish, and in that yeere shall raigne diuers sicknesses, and changes of great Lords shall be made, many women shall perish in trauelling with child, many great Lords shall dye. That yeere shall bee but little Graſſe and muſtard ſeede, nor but little Oyle, but there shall be plenty of Corn and wines, and flesh shall be good cheape.

In Die Martis. That is Tuesday.

IN the yeere that Ianuary shall enter on the Tuesday, the Winter shall be vnstedfast & changeable, for without all doubt it shall freeze in the Prime, which shall hurt sore the Rye, the Vines, and the flowers. The Summer shall be dry, hot and burning, insomuch that the garden hearbs shall haue no power to come out of the ground. All things shall be deere saue onely Corne, many men shall die of the bloudy flixe, there shall be no tidings of Thunder, lightning and tempest, but all flesh shall be very deere, many Wines shall this yeere turne, and so be naught.

In Die Mercurij. That is Wednesday.

IN the yéere that Ianuary shall enter on the Wednesday, the winter shall be temperate, but in the end there shall bée Snow and Frosts, the Prime time shall be rainy, there shall be great abundance of Graße, of Hay, of Corne, of Fruits, of Wines, and generally of all good things. The Summer shall be but little cloudy, by which shall come great sickness: Poore labourers, as handy-crafts and Artificers shall gaine meetly well that yeare; there shall bee many Théeues, by whom the meane people shall be sore pilled and discomfited: great warre, battaile, and slaughter shall be towards the midst of the yéere, by the which shall come great good to some men. In the end of the yéere shall be diuers pestilences, botches, and falling euils, especially néere the Sea.

In Die Iouis. That is Thursday.

IN the yéere that Ianuary shall enter on the Thursday, the winter shall bee long and most part drye, and the yéere shall bee very wholesome. The Prime time time shall bee wholesome and very windie: the Summer shall be temperate, and Harvest shall bee most part rainy, so that the waters shall sore breake out of their bounds: the Wheate and wines shall bée good cheape: there shall bee of Dates, Hay, Grasse, and of fruits, competently enough, Great warre and diuision shall bée betweene the Church and the Kings and Princes, and in the end the Princes shall haue victorie of their enterprises. This yéere women shall set themselues much to Lecherie: also people shall bee well eased of taxes and tallages.

In die Veneris. That is Friday.

IN the yéere that Ianuarye shall enter on the Friday, the winter shall be long and dry and the Summer vnwholesome: Harvest shall bée dry, all Corne shall bee deare: the Vintage shall bée good enough and abundance of Oyle, of Fruit, of Hay, of Grasse, and of garden Herbs, the world shall bee sore persecuted with diuers sicknesses, as sore eyes, and of all Ellkes: many young children shall dye,

great

great Thunder, Lightning and Tempeſt ſhalbe, that ſhal greiue ſore al the ground: there ſhall bée Earthquakes: all cloath ſhall bée good cheape, pore people ſhall gaine little or nothing: many beaſts ſhall dye by hunger through the ſcarcitie of the ſame.

In die Sabbati. That is Satterday.

IF the yére that Ianuary ſhall enter on the Satterday, the Winter ſhall bee temperate ſufficiently, and in the Prime time ſhall bée Froſts, the which ſhall deſtroy the Trees, the Vines, the Dyles, and the Fruits: the Summer ſhall bee meetlye temperate: the harueſt time ſhall bee good cheape, of garden hearbs ſhall bee plenty: all fleſh ſhall bee good cheape: manye olde people ſhall dye: Feauer Tertians ſhall greiue ſore the world, and manye murmurations, warres, and murthers ſhall bee done by one againſt another, and neighbour againſt neighbour, and many other euill acts ſhall bee oftentimes committed and done.

Of the signification of Thunder on euery day in the weeke.

IF it thunder on the Sunday, there will be a great death of Clarks and Iudges & also peruerse people by signification.

If on the Munday it chance to thunder, many women shal die then, and the Sun will suffer Eclipse, by signification.

If it thunder on the Tuesday, it betokeneth great plenty of Corne.

If on Wednesday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that yeere common women and light wenches, and foolish women shall die, and then shall be great bloodshedding.

If it thunder on the Thursday, then shall be very cheape and much plenty of Corne.

If on Friday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that a great man shall bee slaine, and diuers other murthers, and other euils.

If on Saturday it chance to thunder, it betokeneth that there shall be a great generall pestilent plague, whereof many shall die.

The saying of Erra Pater to the Husbandman.

IF the day of Saint Paul be cleare,
Then shall betide an happy yeare:
If it doe chance to snow or raine,
Then shall be deare all kinde of graine.
But if the winde then be aloft,
Warres shall vexe this Realme full oft:
And if the clouds make darke the Skie,
Both Neat and Fowle this yeere shall die.
